Thinking Out Loud

H. M. L.

It is easier to fight an enemy when his identity is known. Nevada County is not fighting honest labor, as that labor expressed itself in the bulletin issued by the Mine Workers Protective League Saturday night. This county is face to face with communism flying the CIO banner. Moreover, one objective of the communists has already been attained. While they are attempting to tear down and destroy the source of livelihood of all of us, themselves included, we the tax payers are supporting them in their efforts.

For, it developes that the following have attached themselves to the state's charity funds: James Vasion, Jay Roberts, Edward Edwards, Donald Mascari, William Nielson, John Pisani, George Fisk, Alec Claggett, Frank Vigilanti, Jack Miller, Grant Spear, Albert Garesio, William Masterson, Jay Green and Ralph Childers.

Among this list of names are several of the CIO-affiliate leaders and agitators. Al Garesio's name shines there; Jay Green's name also ornaments this charity list. While these able-bodied worthies are being kept in idleness, and bend every energy to close the Murchie mine and throw 150 more out of employment, we the tax payers support them. Our good deeds illumine a naughty world like the phosphoresense on a dead fish. We did not raise our boys to be soldiers but apparently we raised them to carry communists on their backs.

The national president of this CIO-communist outfit, while he paused briefly in Nevada County to hearten, but not to finance, his deluded following here, in addressing 200 men, women and children in Grass Valley said:

"If every worker becomes unionized their earnings would not be less than $5,000 a year."

This is an interesting statement. We have employed in Nevada County mines some 2500 miners. If each one were paid $5,000 they would receive $12,500,000 total wages annually. The mines of the county produced last year approximately $10,500,000 gross. If Mother Goose Robinson is right therefore, the miners would have been paid just $2,000,000 more than the mines produced. This is even more fantastic than Dr. Townsend's day dreams. Still, as he no doubt anticipated, Robinson got a big hand on that statement.

Of late the population of Nevada County has been increased by the following communists: Patrick Chamblee, alias, Chambers, alias Williams, arrested 22 times since December 15, 1926, mostly on criminal syndicalism charges.

Frank Conners, alias Frank Bernsskie, arrested for interfering with men at work sawing wood for the Salvation Army, and for causing a disturbance in front of the Sacramento County court house with other communists.

Jack Olsen, arrested for criminal syndicalism, resisting an officer in San Diego, and as a vagabond.

Morris Schmidt, arrested for criminal syndicalism in Long Beach.

Roland V. Dunlap, arrested in Sacramento on criminal syndicalism charges with 17 other communists.

These birds of a feather have flocked here and undoubtedly more are on their way. Presently we shall find them attaching themselves to the SRA emergency relief funds, and thus able to finance themselves, while they industriouely strive to destroy the mining industry in Nevada County.

This situation calls for action. NO, NOT VIGILANTE ACTION, but a committee of tax payers to visit the headquarters of the SRA in Sacramento and see if this kind of thing cannot be stopped. Let the CIO-communists finance their own battle. Al Garesio testified at NLRB hearing that he was receiving miners wages of $5.75 per day for his work as secretary of the local CIO affiliate. If he is now getting that money, and is also drawing SRA funds, only one reasonable conclusion may be drawn. Let us find out where American citizens and tax payers stand.

CITY OFFICERS UP FOR ELECTION

An election for the offices held by Mayor Ben Hall, Councilman Karl Kopp, city clerk George Calanan and city treasurer Mrs. Emma Foley, will be held next April 12, under the terms of the state legislature enactment governing elections of municipalities of the sixth class.

ERNEST GEORGE SHOWS ROTARY SCENIC REELS

Ernest George of the Grass Valley Rotary entertained the Rotary Club of Nevada City at luncheon yesterday with a series of reels showing views taken at Grass Valley, Bowman Lake and lakes on the same trip, Grantsville, Bloomfield and the Malakoff diggings, Yellowstone National Park with Old Faithful spouting magnificently as it does every 65 minutes and Salt Lake City and the Great Salt Lake.

Two new members, Bill Tamblyn Jr., manager of the Nevada Theatre, and H. E. Kjorlie, principal of the Nevada City high school were formally initiated. Past President Finnegan delivered an interesting address concerning the origin, the character and the purpose of International Rotary. Mr. Finnegan stated that Rotary began in 1912 as idea in the mind of a lonely young attorney in Chicago. It began with a handful of members and has since grown to over 4,000 clubs in 80 different countries with a membership of more than 100,000.

Among the films displayed by Ernest George were some in technicolor showing the beautiful procession on July 4 in Grass Valley last year, others were fishing scenes along Nevada County streams and upon its lakes, Downieville before and after the great flood last December, and views along many of the mountain roads in what Mr. George declares scenically the peer of any country in the world.

LEGION ASKS THAT BRIDGES BE DEPORTED

Commander Jack Nettell, of Hague-Thomas-Hegarty Post, No. 130 lead a delegation of veterans to Woodland Sunday to attend the regular meeting of the sixth district, which brought together 250 legionnaires, auxiliary members and their families from Nevada, El Dorado, Sacramento, Yolo, and Placer counties.

A resolution demanding that Harry Bridges, the Pacific Coast Committee for Industrial Organization leader, be adjudged an alien Communist and be deported, was adopted unanimously by members from five counties.

The group also adopted a resolution complimenting Otis D. Babcock, the Sacramento county district attorney, for his vigorous stand in the "Sacramento girl flag salute case."

The afternoon meeting was a joint session of both groups. Among the speakers were Joseph S. Long, Riverside, the state department commander; James K. Fiske, Berkeley, state adjutant; Father H. L. Walsh, University of Santa Clara, department chaplain; H. G. Walters, Watsonville, state Americanization chairman; Charles McGonneal, Bell, assistant state adjutant; Elmer Arnoldy, Marysville, first area commander; Mrs. Edith Wright, Sacramento, sixth district auxiliary chairman; Mrs. Mary Ann Holt, San Francisco, state department education chairman; Robert Cook, Vallejo fifth district commander.

The group decided to hold the next meeting in Auburn on May 15.

TWIN CITY AND COUNTY BOARDS SOUND PROTEST

Grass Valley and Nevada City's city councilmen met last Tuesday with the County Board of Supervisors at their regular March meeting in the court house. The purpose of the combined meeting was to assure the county board that the cities of Nevada City and Grass Valley are one hundred per cent behind them in their policy of insuring the maintenance of law and order in spite of expense involved.

It was stated that the county board was prepared to meet any and all law-breaking emergencies that might at any time arise in the future. The fact that the Murchie miners were still going to and from the mine in a convoy was mentioned and the necessity for this inconvenient policy was deplored.

The board of supervisors went on record as being opposed to the policy of the State Emergency Relief Administration in supporting the CIO pickets and agitators on a relief dole. They expressed the belief that if these pickets must be supported without working, the striking union should render that support. They considered that the state had placed itself, through the action of the relief administration, of actually supporting the local CIO union and the picket line. This, they held, was to be condemned.

The case of Al Garesio, financial secretary of the local MM&SMU, caused particular resentment Garesio is on the state relief roles, in spite of the fact that he testified before the National Labor Relations Board hearing in Grass Valley that he received miner's pay of $5.75 per day for his services as financial secretary.

It was also noted, with considerable disapproval that attempts were being made to organize the WPA workers of this district, and a report was made to the board that 38 workers of the Nevada City WPA work crew were enlisted in the local union.

60.72 INCHES RAINFALL RECORD TO DATE

The first three days of the storm that brought "March in like a lion" measured 1.36 inches the first; 1.66 inches the second, and .41 of an inch the third, or 3.43 inches. The total for the season is 60.72 inches.

Reports from the state division of highways at Nevada City are that rain fell as high as the 5,000 foot level during the last storm.

At the junction of State Route 20 or Tahoe Ukiah and the Washington road there is a pack of five feet an the level. At Sierra City the snow pack is three feet on the level.

A snowgo is to be secured as soon as it can be released from work on the Donner Summit and other deep snow locations, to be used by the local state division of highways and the road from Washington junction to Emigrant Gap or the Auburn to Reno highway.

Otto E. Schiffner, superintendent of the Lava Cap mine, left yesterday for San Francisco on business and will return home this evening.

SPECIAL SESSION OF LEGISLATURE TO BE HOT ONE

By CLEM WHITAKER

SACRAMENTO, March 3.—There will be a hot time in the old town when California's lawmakers foregather at Sacramento, a few days hence, for the scheduled special session of the state legislature.

The session promises to be as rowdy as a candidates' ball on the skidway.

And before the final gavel falls, candidates will have been launched; other candidacies will have been blasted; deals will have been made, combinations broken and plots investigated.

Between times, of course, there will be a certain amount of legislating, but mostly it will be what the boys call "politicking"—a business with more angles than advanced trigonometry!

To get proper perspective on the forthcoming session, imagine (if you can) a sudden merger of the Republican and Democrattic state conventions on the eve of a bitter campaign, with liberals and conservatives, radicals and reactionaries, all bidding for the same spotlight; all housed in the same chamber.

The meeting coming up is on that order. Nearly every legislator—each of their presiding officers and the governor who called them into special session—is a candidate. And in many instances they are rivals for the same office!

Governor Merriam, when he delivers his message to the lawmakers, will stand only a few feet from Lieutenant Governor, George Hatfield, his hard hitting challenger. And Hatfield, as he looks down on the chamber, will be taken the measure of Senator Culbert Olson, Democratic contender. Nearby will be Senator "Bill" Rich of Marysville, president pro tem of the Senate—a possible contender for the job Hatfield is vacating. And scattered about the room will be many other would-be lieutenant governors — Senator Jerrold Seawell of Roseville and Assemblyman Ellis Patterson of King City, whose hats are already in the ring; Senators Nielsen, Phillips, Knowland, Swing and McGovern, all possible aspirants.

Speaker William Moseley Jones of the assembly will be there, too—seeking $50,000 for his Los Angeles investigating committee and wondering about his possible candidacy for Attorney General; not far away will be Assemblyman Boyle, Los Angeles and Donihue, Oakland, both candidates for seats on the Board of Equalization. Then there will be Senators "Andy" Pierovich of Jackson and "Jim" Holohan of Santa Cruz, both thinking about a tilt with State Treasurer "Gus" Johnson. And on top of all that, counit in a dozen assemblymen and senators with congressional ambitions, a few others aspiring to be judges and a host of lower house members seeking promotion to the Senate.

No mater what happens on housing or oil or relief, it will be quite a session. You can depend on it!

TO JUDGE WALTER MOBLEY

Hundreds of friends, many of whom date their friendship from the old days in North Bloomfield, are congratulating Judge Walter Mobley, on the fact that after more than a year since it was made, the charge lodged against him in the Federal court has been dismissed The charge made against him by government detective, anxious to make a record in the present campaign against highgrading, never touched nor for one moment besmirched the good name that Judge Mobley has bourne since he was born over 70 years ago.

No one that knew him gave the slightest credence to the accusation made by a Federal employe, who, it is generally believed, placed the charge in a vindictive attempt to appease his own petty vanity. There was not a scintilla of evidence of dishonesty on intention to commit crime. The charge that has been kept hanging over Judge Mobley's head for more than a year was based on nothing but a purely technical error. Every citizen of the county at all conversant with the facts regards his arrest and long delay in dismissing the charge, as an outrage and a travesty upon justice. As the result of it, he was made the subject of vile abuse from the communist clique which has lately invaded this county.

It should be a satisfaction and a comfort to Judge Mobley to know that the harrassing and unjust burden that has rested upon him for these many months, has been shared widely in this community, and that the friends he has made in a long life of unselfish service to his neighbors and fellow citizens, rejoice with him that it has now been removed.

The Week

By H. M. L. Jr.

The philosopher, Benjamin Franklin, wrote some thoughts that should cheer the great multitude, who sated on doles and starved by taxes send skyward a huge and doleful daily groan about the horrid abysses of misfortune into which they have been forced by the administration and all its concomitants. Back in 1750, the populace was discontent with the government, and quite as resentful of taxes as it is now and ever will be. Franklin, strolling about Philadelphia, came upon a group of people conversing together about the "Badness of the Times" and whether or not the "Heavy Taxes would quite ruin the country."

An elderly gentleman spoke to these people: "Friends," said he, "and neighbors, the taxes are indeed very heavy, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might discharge them easily, but we have many others and much more grievious to some of us. We are taxed twice as much by our idleness, three times as much by our pride, and four times as much by our folly, and from these taxes, the commissioners cannot ease or deliver us by allowing an abatement."

The old gentleman went on to say, "It would be thought a hard government that should tax its people one-tenth part of their time, to be employed in its service. But idleness taxes many of us much more, if we reckon all that is spent in absolute sloth, or in doing of nothing, with that which is spent in idle employment or amusements, that amount to nothing." The patriarch who spoke to the crowd as reported by Benjamin Franklin proceeded to harangue them earnestly, and in the same vein for more than an hour. He emphasized particularly and repeatedly the virtues of thrift, contrasted with the prevailing habits of extravagance and complaint against the government.

Franklin continued: "Thus the old gentleman ended his harangue. The people heard it, and approved the doctrine, and immediately practiced the contrary, just as if it had been a common sermon, for the store opened and they began to buy extravagantly, notwithstanding all his cautions, and their own fear of taxes."

This homely fable from Poor Richard has a sly humor that makes a bright and charming contrast to the somber hopelessness of those whose vocation or avocation is to croak feebly about the ills of man, the source of which they have lately discovered to be in the White House. Poor Richard's moral has not lost in the almost two hundred years since the fable was written, one whit of the sharpness of its point.

Since the administration has not for the past few days been doing anything new and capable of being variously described as jingoistic, fascistic, or communistic, professional writers who live by finding fault with more successful people, have turned their habitually horrified minds to contemplating the financial deals of the clan Roosevelt. It appears that all the family is making lots of money, and has been ever since father became President. This, say the commentators, is bad, very bad. The vast earnings of Mrs. Roosevelt are particularly deplorable, although she gives large sums to charity regularly.

The earning of all this money by the family, say the critics, is highly unethical. Now something has occurred which they should be thankful to for filling their columns, but which on the contrary, they regard unanimously as a sort of last straw. President Roosevelt has sold rights to publish his private papars for a hundred thousand or so dollars. For every dollar Roosevelt receives, a critic raises his head and screams, and another takes pen in hand and loudly scratches his condemnation.

Between the scratching pens and the screaming critics a great Babel of noise is raised. Still louder and more persistent than the condemnation cries and pen scratching of the critics is heard another great murmur of thoughts spoken under the breath. Hark! We can make out the words; they are: "Damn, I wish I had the chance".

HIGH SCHOOL OLD FASHIONED SHOW

THIS AND THAT

By ROY GRIFFITH DEETER

This week's double-dilly: We quote from Time: "In recognition of his Rainbow Arch to World War dead famed Sculptor George Gray Barnard was created the sole male Gold Star Mother." Monkeys is the crabiest people! The Mint, one place where a "reasonable facsimile" will not help you to win a contest! And while we think of it, just how far will this radio contest advertising that starts, "I like— because —" go? It is getting pretty monotonous we'd say.

True Americanism: Last Saturday evening's parade of miners, so orderly well conducted expression of the "qualifications of freeman" and the "right to work."

This week's word of cheer: Despite the storm the first daffodils are in bloom.

Personalities: Leonard Lagerson, pipe smoker supreme, closing a big deal for a whole raft of new pipes. Dick Parsons, with a very worried expression celebrating his birthday by taking a traffic school examination.

Radios latest sensation: Freddie Fisher's Schnickelfritz Band, so corny they are corking.

This week's reflection upon our own mental agony:

If I had brains within my head,
I'd finish this column and go to bed.
But as I haven't any brain
I'll simply have to stand the strain.

Cheerio, everybody!

SHARP ALLEGES DILLON SALTED LADYBUG MINE

Declaring that Frank Dillon had given him a lease and option on the Ladybug mine property near Washington, following a "salting" of samples taken from the property, which he agreed to buy for $100,000 Randall P. Sharp, New York mining engineer, has filed suit to recover the money paid and the value of his services in time lost, and the cost of improvements made. The total amount for which suit is filed is $13,950.

Sharpe declares that last July he accompanied Dillon to the Ladybug, following correspondence on the subject and his arrival here from New York, and there samples were taken that assayed over $8 per ton. It was not until he dismissed Dillon on January 12, and then again sampled the mine in the very locations where the first samples had been taken that, according to his complaint, Sharpe found that Dillon had salted the first samples, by spraying over them a gold solution.

Although Sharpe had satisfied himself that Dillon's statement that there were 100,000 tons of ore exposed, his sampling following Dillon's departure in January revealed the ore worth but $1.00 per ton or less.

Sharpe values his services from last July until February 11, at $3,000, expense for equipment and other improvements at $8,350 and the money paid on alleged fraudulent representations, amounting to $2,600. This amount he prays judgment for. Attorneys Jones and Finnegan are attorneys for Mr. Sharpe.

NEVADA COUNTY NOT GETTING IS DOLE SHARE

A large crowd gathered Tuesday at the corner by the Methodist church waiting for the SERA relief truck of groceries which visits this city twice a month and distributes food to the needy. Twenty or twenty five automobiles of men, women and children, many of them wearing the yellow CIO buttons, waited patiently until the truck came in. Then the driver doled out to each of those entitled to relief a dozen oranges and a half dozen apples. The recipients complained bitterly that while this dole was filling it was not very sustaining.

It is understood that the recent enrollment of some 38 WPA workers of this vicinity in a CIO affiliate, called the Workers Alliance, has been undertaken on the promise that for a 50s membership fee the CIO will obtain for the WPA workers a share in the distribution of free clothing and bedding at Auburn. There has been much complaint recently that Nevada County is not getting its share of this free Federal clothing at the Auburn depot, and the CIO now promises to remedy this condition.

CRUSADERS OFFER PRIZES FOR STUDENTS

With a vacation trip to Hawaii as a reward for the winner, The California Crusaders today announced the start of their third annual public speaking contest for the high school students of northern California on the subject, "American Citizenship—And What It Means to Me."

"This contest," declared Samuel J. Hume, director of the Crusaders, a non-partisan organization. "is designed to encourage among the youth of California a deeper appreciation of the ideals, principles and obligations of American citizenship. It has the endorsement of educators, students, veterans, and thinking men and women everywhere."

In this district Miss Jean Grant last year won the silver Crusáder sup and the county gold medal.

Trophies and vacation trips to Camp Curry and other summer resorts will be awarded the other winners in the final contest. Silver cups will be presented students winning regional championships while the county winners will receive gold medals. Each student participating in the contest will receive an honor award bearing a stirring charge of citizenship.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSE TAUGHT AT HIGH SCHOOL

Nevada City high school has an excellent curriculum in home economics, which has been established under the terms of a Federal act of July 1937, in which the Federal government provides half of the running expenses of vocational departments of secondary schools.

Some excellent new equipment has been installed for these courses at the high school this year. There are oak work tables, topped with heavy white linoleum and contained compartments for kitchen utensils, and room for eight students to work in.

Miss Thelma McKnight, director of the high school home economics department, was trained at San Jose State Teacher's College, and before coming to Nevada City, taught at Ceres in this state.

Elzear Foley, engineer with the state division of highways, came up from Stockton during the past week end and is spending his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Emma Foley.

EPWORTH LEAGUE HOLDS CONCLAVE AT SACRAMENTO

The 47th Annual Sacramento District of the California Epworth League was held Saturday and Sunday February 26 and 27 in Sacramento at the Oak Park Methodist church.

Approximately 38 students attended the convention from Nevada City and made a good showing for themselves under the direction of Reverend Elwood Gray and their counselor, Miss Jean Hawkins.

The convention started Saturday evening with a banquet and conference business. At the banquet, it was resolved by the group, which represents 700 young folks to ask their congressman to endorse the Ludnall bill, which makes it necessary for a vote to be taken by the people before war can be declared. The officers for the next year were introduced. Miss Marnie Nile, who is well known in this city, and a member of the Grass Valley Epworth League, was elected vice president.

Church was held the next day in Oak Park M. E. church and the convention continued until 11 a. m. when it was adjourned.

The local leaguers went to Sacramento in a bus, which was loaned by Carl J. Tobiassen and it was driven by Tom Rickard, Placer J. C. Student Bus driver. The leaguers were housed in private homes.

An Echo Service will be held beginning at 6:30 Sunday evening at which the delegates will tell of the convention. A short meeting was held Sunday evening after the convention with Laura Price as leader.

The leagues represented included: Red Bluff, Redding, Sacramento, Rio Linda, Grass Valley, who was awarded the cup for attendance, being 2 points behind Nevada City), Chico, Orland, Oroville, Roseville, Loomis, Auburn, Oak Park, Woodland, Corning, Lassen Alliance, and many others The district is divided into four alliances, tri county; Placer, Nevada; Lassen and Sacramento.

Miss Dorothy Feagans Weds Arthur Dow

With only family members present a quiet impressive wedding service was performed in the Methodist parsonage Monday evening uniting Miss Dorothy Jane Feagans and Arthur Irving Dow. Rev H. H. Buckner of the Methodist church performed the service. Miss Gertrude Wilde was bridesmaid and Raymond Feagans, brother of the bride, was best man.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geary Feagans of Drummond street. She is popular throughout Nevada City where she attended the local schools.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Ivan Dow, is a local contractor and held in high esteem by a wide circle of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Dow spent this week in southern California on a honeymoon and were expected to return home last evening or today. They will reside in Nevada City.

The bride's mother is planning to hold a reception entertaining several friends honoring her daughter upon her return.

Nevada City Girl to Wed Chico Man

Miss Dorothy Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving Long of Drummond street, this city, announced her engagement last week to Ralph W. Watkins, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Watkins of Chico. Both are former Chico State Teachers College students now attending University of California. Mr. and Mrs. Irving Long returned from a week end spent in Berkeley with their daughter.

Family Reunion Held in Oakland

Mrs. A. C. Roberts of Gold Flat returned Wednesday from a family reunion at the home of her sister, Mrs. Laura Stewart in Oakland. The big event took place last Monday. A sister and family and a brother of Newberry, Mich., visited relatives in Los Angeles and Seattle and returned to Oakland for the family meeting. The party from Michigan left Oakland yesterday for Oasis in southern California to visit a brother, Arthur Stewart, and will visit Boulder Dam on their homeward journey.

MEXICO BUILDS LOOP ROUTE FOR AUTO TOURISTS

Ready access by modern highway is resulting in the "discovery" of Mexico by the American motorist according to the Touring Bureau of the California State Automobile Association. For more than a year the new highway from the border at Laredo, Texas to Mexico City has been completed and open. Travel has steadily increased, spurred first by the lure of novelty, later by enthusiastic reports of returning motorists.

This linking of Mexico with the United States by highway is not to remain limited to the Laredo-Mexico City route. Mexican officialdom and business leaders, alert to the advantages of placing their country prominently on the touring map, are busily carrying forward the project of a second international highway, to ertend through western Mexico.

This project involves modernization of existing roads from the border at Nogales, Arizona, down through scenic west coastal Mexico to Guadalajara. Thence, good highways already extend to Mexico City. When completed the new western highway will provide motorists with a vast circle tour deep into Mexico and back again, starting from either Nogales or Laredo.

Construction and financing programs for the new highway have been completed. Mexican officials announced recently that heavy building operations on eleven sections of the 1186-mile highway were about to commence.

Interest of California in the new route was shown at a conference on the project in Mazatlan last year. Present as active participants were representatives of the Automobile Association, Automobile Club of Southern California, and State Division of Highways.

The many friends of Al C. Fouyer who is in Letterman's hospital in the bay region, will be pleased to learn he is improving and has gained ten pounds in weight. Mrs. Fouyer had planned to visit him this week but due to heavy storms she was unable to make the trip.

A manly, handsome gift that is also utterly practical. The watch, chain, knife, pencil — all comprise something he will appreciate.

A Glimpse of Building Activity

No. 1. MARCH 4, 1938. No. 72.

If you have an assured income from which you can make regular monthly payments do not let the lack of ready cash hold you back on needed improvements to your home. The Title I plan of government insurance in conjunction with banks and other loaning agencies makes it possible for such improvements to be made at once. Pay for your modernized home while living in it.

The home of C. E. Winney on the Tahoe Ukiah is being improved with a new shingle roof and some shingles on the sides also. A finish coating of Creolinium Shingle Stains in Red and Green colors will give this home a fine appearance.

The late "BIG WIND" has not caused us to change our recommendations for good wood shingles wherever they can be used to advantage. The shingles came through the blow in good shape in comparison to other types of roofing.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sandin are completing the plumbing in their home on Clay street.

These blustery days give an opportunity for doing those little inside jobs of painting, etc. Do you know how convenient it is to paint with Laux for your wall finish? A fine soft finish in various colors— no odor— rooms can be used at once. It will pay you to find out about Laux Vello wall finish.

He: You look like a sensible girl, let's get married.

She: Nothing doing; I'm just as sensible as I look.
